English literature - The 20th century: The 20th century opened with great hope but also with some apprehension, for the new century marked the final approach to a new millennium. For many, humankind was entering upon an unprecedented era. H.G. Wells's utopian studies, the aptly titled Anticipations of the Reaction of Mechanical and Scientific Progress upon Human Life and Thought (1901) and A ... Indian English literature (IEL) is the body of work by writers in India who write in the English language and whose native or co-native language could be one of the numerous languages of India. Its early history began with the works of Michael Madhusudan Dutt followed by R. K. Narayan, Mulk Raj Anand and Raja Rao who contributed to Indian fiction in the 1930s. A novel is a long, fictional narrative which describes intimate human experiences. The novel in the modern era usually makes use of a literary prose style. The development of the prose novel at this time was encouraged by innovations in printing, and the introduction of cheap paper in the 15th century.. The present English (and Spanish) word for a long work of prose fiction derives from the ... Congratulations to Anna Burns, who earlier this evening at London's Guildhall became the 50th winner of the Man Booker Prize—Britain's most prestigious and high profile literary award—when she took home the gold for her novel Milkman: a tale of tribalism and hope set during the Troubles in Northern Ireland, which focuses on a young woman who is forced into a relationship with an older man. - 21st Century Indian English Novel
