Dansys Consultants, “Aboriginal People in Manitoba: Population Estimates for 1986 and 1991,” research paper prepared for the Aboriginal Justice Inquiry, Ottawa, November, 1990. Military justice (or military law) is the body of laws and procedures governing members of the armed forces. Many nation-states have separate and distinct bodies of law that govern the conduct of members of their armed forces. Some states use special judicial and other arrangements to enforce those laws, while others use civilian judicial systems. Legal issues unique to military justice include ... - Criminal Justice History Vol. Iv : An International Annual, 1983
