The history of ideas is a field of research in history that deals with the expression, preservation, and change of human ideas over time. The history of ideas is a sister-discipline to, or a particular approach within, intellectual history. Work in the history of ideas may involve interdisciplinary research in the history of philosophy, the history of science, or the history of literature. Intellectual history refers to the historiography of ideas and thinkers. This history cannot be considered without the knowledge of the humans who created, discussed, wrote about, and in other ways were concerned with ideas. Intellectual history as practiced by historians is parallel to the history of philosophy as done by philosophers, and is more akin to the history of ideas. where the k th element of z is unity and all other elements are zero when topic k is chosen.. To emphasize the innovative element of STM, the choice of a specific vocabulary word, v , is modeled as a function of two parameters, one indicating the baseline importance of that word across all documents, m_v , and one indicating the importance of the word given the topic k , β_{kv} .
