Located in Middlesex County, New Jersey, this well established and highly regarded PT owned general physical therapy practice is coming up for sale due to the upcoming retirement of the owner after 36 years. The Extensive Reading Foundation, this guide is supported by The Extensive Reading Foundation Follow us on Facebook and the ERF YouTube Channel Normal textbooks suck! Most mainstream math textbooks are too long, too boring, and too expensive. It's difficult to find a book at the right level. Introductory math textbooks treat readers as dummies, while advanced textbooks assume that readers have a solid grasp of the basics. - Guide To Reading Textbooks
