Naturally, racial friction is often depicted in South African literature of all languages. But there is a marked difference between how white writing depicts black characters and how some black authors depict whites: one emphasises that people are not what the stereotype claims, the other argue that the stereotype is substantiated. To find the semesters in which a course is most likely to be offered, refer to Browse Catalog in the Student Administration System.. The directory of courses lists the undergraduate courses which the University expects to offer, although the University in no way guarantees that all such courses will be offered in any given academic year. Postcolonial literature is the literature by people from formerly colonized countries. It exists on all continents except Antarctica. Postcolonial literature often addresses the problems and consequences of the decolonization of a country, especially questions relating to the political and cultural independence of formerly subjugated people, and themes such as racialism and colonialism. - Literature Without Borders International Literature In English For Student Writers
