Arashiyama (嵐山, Storm Mountain) is a district on the western outskirts of Kyoto, Japan. It also refers to the mountain across the Arashiyama River, which forms a backdrop to the district. Arashiyama is a nationally designated Historic Site and Place of Scenic Beauty. Arashiyama is the second-most important sightseeing district in Kyoto. It's filled with temples and shrines, but the star attraction is the famed Arashiyama Bamboo Grove. This is the perfect place to visit for those who love animals and looking over cities at mountaintops. The Iwatayama Monkey Park is located on Mount Arashiyama, where their very own wild snow monkeys run about the terrain at the top of the mountain. The following is a suggested full day itinerary for medium paced travelers that takes you through Kyoto's Arashiyama District. This itinerary can be modified with a few recommended additions. - Monkeys Of Arashiyama
